Designed by Parade of Homes 2024 Grand Hacienda Winner, Zachary and Sons, this beautifully appointed property on 2.87 acres located on private drive off Camino de Cruz Blanca is an art collector's dream. This impressive property was reimaged by architect Robert Zachry and interior designer Edy Keeler of Core Value Interiors with an Asian inspired theme. Privacy and serenity abound in this Zen-like setting with multiple outdoor living spaces, punctuated by the gorgeous, landscaped patio between the main house and guest house that features a Japanese bridge spanning ponds with koi and goldfish, a waterfall, meditation patio, aspens and Japanese Maples. The 3,904 sf main house offers 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, media room, and a grand sunken living room. Nestled beneath pine trees, the main house offers a serene, very private feel while the 957 sf guest house sits above the main house with expansive western views of the Jemez, Sun, and Moon Mountains with sunset and city lights views. The guest house is fully equipped with 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, kitchen, laundry, and view portal. Unsurpassed design elements and finishes include partly adobe construction, Merbau wood flooring in several areas, limestone flooring; wood ceilings of vigas, beams, and bamboo; stacked rock walls, Variance Acrylic Finish on walls that offers exceptional depth and color, top of the line appliances including a 2-temperature zone ~ 150 bottle Subzero wine refrigerator, and 5 fireplaces. This impeccably maintained property includes a 3-car garage, 56 panel solar system, leak detection system, new Viesmann 99% efficient boiler, and more. Wildfire Hazard Rosk Assessment from FireSafe Santa Fe conducted in February 2025 with recommendations complete. A fire hydrant is also conveniently located on the property. In a coveted location near St. John's College accessible to hiking trails, this is a stunning and masterful property.
