A rare sanctuary awaits at this unparalleled Santa Fe compound representing the ultimate retreat in the heart of New Mexico's cultural capital. This incomparable estate which includes a 7,000-square-foot main house with three distinct guest casitas, captures the essence of Southwestern grandeur with traditional Puebloan architecture, fourteen fireplaces, and arresting mountain views in every direction. The main residence features five bedrooms, commercial-grade kitchen, and 600-bottle wine cellar, while three additional casitas provide sumptuous guest accommodations including game rooms, gym, salon, massage room, and sauna. Nature and luxury converge in perfect harmony with stunning pool and spa, expansive lawns, outdoor pavilion, heated walkways, and flowing ornamental stream. The grand portal overlooks city lights and accommodates over 100 guests, creating the ultimate entertainment destination.
