$5,995,000

3 Bedroom, 5.00 Bathroom,
Residential on 1.23 Acres

Monte Sereno, Santa Fe, NM

Monte Sereno Masterpiece. Sculpted by builder Kim Dressel and architect Rad Acton from cutting edge contemporary building materials, glass, and stone, the East-Facing classic one-level home delivers on every level - starting the enormous views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains to the east and the Badlands to the north. Enter through a private gate to the motor court with pavers, then the pivot gate & private garden - to a view sequence matched by few other properties in all of Santa Fe. Completed in 2022, the soaring ceilings and walls of glass are complemented by a wonderful open floor plan which meshes the living room/dining room/kitchen/wine bar into one graceful glowing space. Top-of-the-line appliance package and views galore make the kitchen a true centerpiece of the home, with a full butler's pantry and cozy banco seating area. The media room/office area are state-of-the art on every level, with an oversized TV screen and partitioning for privacy. The outdoor portal space retains the high ceilings, and the space is replete with a pool/spa feature that is fully programmable, a well equipped outdoor kitchen, and in ceiling radiant heaters to take the edge off Santa Fe's cool evenings while taking in the views. The primary suite is cloistered away from the rest of the home and enjoys spectacular views and a luxurious bathroom suite and separate closets. The other bedrooms all enjoy the same views and ensuite baths. There is a separate exercise room on the south end of the home which also retains the views and lots of sunlight - could also be a great artist's studio.
